

PLAYER BEHAVIORAL GUIDELINES:

Your behavior and conduct at all times should reflect credit upon yourself, your teammates and the Saskatoon Slam Basketball Team(s). To help you, some guidelines are provided below:

1) MISSED PRACTICES:

- a. If you are unable to attend practice for any reason, a coach must be informed at the earliest time possible Please e-mail.
- b. Attendance in both school and at practice is mandatory. If you are unable to come to school, then you should not be at practice or games. If you are well enough to be at practice, you are well enough to be at school.(half day rule)
- c. Players who miss three practices, without contacting a coach, must meet with the coach to reconsider her role on the team with the possibility of removal.

2) At competition time: The team is expected to be there at least 15 min. prior to game and sit together and support one another. Socializing with friends and family are encouraged after the post game meeting.

3) Whenever in public as a team, you must choose personal attire, which shows good taste for the occasion. All team members must dress the same on game days.

4) The use of profanity around the team and staff will not be tolerated.

5) Any member of this basketball team who chooses to become involved with the use of alcohol, drugs, or smoking cannot be serious about the commitment and will be asked to leave the team.

6) Team members should not engage in or listen to unnecessary griping behind the back of others. Should you have a gripe, concern or problem, you should bring it immediately to the attention of your coach.

7) Personal Responsibilities: You are expected to bring to each practice/game the following, this is your responsibility not your parents: Reversible team jersey, Black shorts. Good basketball runners, water bottle, basketball, play book and gym bag.

8) Schedule: Players should know when they are participating and work with their parents to coordinate there participation within the family unit. Put it on your calendar.

9) Bullying will not be tolerated we are a team and will support one another accordingly both on and off the court.

10) Practice: You will be 15 minutes early to get ready warmed up with shoes on ready to go when practice starts.

11) Talking: When Coaches are talking pay attention, no talking, and hold the ball.

12) Any questions or problems talk to your coach

13) HAVE FUN AND ENJOY YOURSELF. REMEMBER BASKETBALL IS A GAME AND GAMES ARE MEANT TO BE FUN. HAVE A GREAT YEAR

